

- Translation -

Change of settlement cycle for the cash settlement and securities delivery and designating FinNet to be an authorized person to provide the payment management service

Reference is made to the Stock Exchange of Thailand (SET) will change the settlement cycle for the cash settlement and securities delivery from T+3 to T+2 and the Company designated Finnet Innovation Network Co., Ltd. (FinNet) to be an authorized person to provide the payment management service, the Company would like to notify the following changes:

1. The change of the settlement cycle for the cash settlement and securities delivery to expedite the payments for customers from T+3 to T+2 will be effective on trade date of March 2nd, 2018 that the transactions will be settled on March 6th, 2018 which on such date will has two simultaneous settlements (Double Settlement) that are the settlement for trade date of February 28th, 2018 (T+3) and the settlement for trade date of March 2nd, 2018 (T+2). On Double Settlement date, the Company will process the settlement via ATS in the manner of net settlement.
2. Apart from the Company, the Company also assigned FinNet to provide the payment management service on behalf of the Company by the cash settlement through FinNet will commence on trading date of February 7th, 2018 (settle on February 12th, 2018) onwards.

FinNet will process the cash settlement at the following times:

- Payables to the Company (client's net buy) will be deducted (via ATS) from client's account at 11:30 a.m.
- Payables to the client (client's net sell) will be deposited (via ATS) to client's account at around 2:15 p.m.

However, the cash settlement through the Company's representatives will not affect to the settlement schedules designated by the Company. The Company and/or FinNet may change the settlement schedules at any time without notice to the Client. The client can follow the Company's information on www.applewealthsecurities.com.

Sincerely yours,

Apple Wealth Securities Public Company Limited